ABOUT THE PROPERTY

No. 01825 UPSCALE SPACIOUS HOME FOR SALE MINUTES FROM MOUNTAIN VIEW, ARKANSAS. The 4814 square feet is 3 levels. The main level has 3 bedrooms, 2.5 baths, hearth room, large country kitchen, dining room, living room, laundry, office area, and oversized garage. A bonus room is on the upper level that would lend itself to a writing sanctuary, craft room, extra bedroom, or play room. This level has a walk through attic door with a huge amount of storage. Downstairs is a walk out basement with access from the main floor as well as an exterior entrance. Large windows and full glass doors provide amazing light. The native stone hearth is home to a wood stove that invites you to enjoy a cozy evening by the fire or watching tv or just visiting with the family and friends. On this level there is a full bath, bedroom, living area, and tons of floor space that can be utilized in many ways. One room currently is used for storage but the possibilities are endless. It would be easy to add a kitchen for another complete living space. The interior of the home is a mix of wood and drywall with custom Knotty Alder doors and trim, crown molding, hardwood and ceramic floors. The kitchen is a cooks delight with yards and yards of counter space, Alder custom cabinets, a unique granite topped free standing work table, all appliances included. Open from the kitchen is the Hearth Room with a wood burning fireplace, ample seating area, and even a built in

TV nook. Outside there is enough landscaping for the flower gardener to enjoy while keeping tree shaded privacy. The basement level has its own covered patio and such a pretty view. This description could go on and on. But we will end it with a 5.10 acre wooded lot with a beautiful view of the mountains. Located on a quiet dead end paved road just a few minutes from downtown. This is a home you have to experience to appreciate its beauty and endless features. Priced much below building cost at $339,000
